

LI Lawyer Ones to Watch

★ JOHN ARWEILER

▶ JOHN CARAVELLA

★ John Arweiler

Principal, Law Offices of John Arweiler

Arweiler, who founded his Coram-based law practice in 1994, has enjoyed several long-term engagements as general counsel for companies and nonprofit organizations. A former captain in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves, Arweiler started his career at O'Connor & Snyder where he rose to partner. He also served as partner at Forman, Kingston & Dowd, which became Forman, Arweiler & Schafer, before striking out on his own. Areas of concentration for Arweiler include real estate, business organizations and transactions, elder law, DUI and DWI cases, probate, estate planning and estate administration and litigation.

★ John Caravella

Principal, The Law Offices of John Caravella

A construction attorney who formerly spent 10 years as a project architect, Caravella recently expanded his practice with the opening of a third office in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Caravella splits his time between his offices in Uniondale, Manhattan and Florida. In serving the legal needs of the construction community, Caravella represents architects, builders and subcontractors in drafting agreements and litigating contract, bond and lien claims. He also assists property owners who are dealing with defective construction. As an architect, Caravella focused on commercial and tenant renovations and high-end custom residences.

ELLEN H. GREIPER

MICHAEL D. HUMPHREY

Ellen H. Greiper

Partner, Goldberg Segalla

Greiper is the newest partner in the law firm's Garden City office, where she brought 26 years of experience defending multiparty construction defect cases in the federal and state courts of New York. Greiper's litigation resume includes high-exposure premises liability cases, labor law cases and large personal injury matters. Before joining Goldberg Segalla, Greiper was of counsel to Farber Brocks & Zane in Mineola. Prior to that, she was a name partner at Gartner, Bloom & Greiper of Manhattan and Springfield, N.J., which, following Greiper's departure, changed its name to Gartner & Bloom.

Michael D. Humphrey

Counsel, Vishnick McGovern Milizio

Humphrey practices in the Lake Success law firm's trusts and estates group and tax law practice, focusing on contested accounting proceedings. In representing trust and estate beneficiaries, Humphrey analyzes a fiduciary's account to ensure that each beneficiary receives his or her full legacy or bequest. When representing fiduciaries, he applies his skills to minimize the fiduciary's risk and exposure to claims from beneficiaries. Additionally, Humphrey advises clients in the firm's family office practice group, handling legal, trust and estate, and succession planning affairs for single-family and multifamily offices.

Adam H. Koblenz

Associate, Sahn Ward Coschignano & Baker

Concentrating his practice in litigation and appeals, Koblenz has represented major corporations, municipalities, unions, small businesses, nonprofits and individuals. Typical cases for Koblenz include complex commercial and corporate litigation, insurance fraud actions and employment and labor law matters. In addition to his responsibilities with Sahn Ward, which he joined in 2010, Koblenz serves as a prosecutor for the village of East Hills. A graduate of George Washington University Law School, Koblenz previously interned in the offices of Sen. John Kerry, D-Mass. and Sen. Charles Schumer, D-N.Y. He was also previously associated with the Uniondale law firm Rivkin Radler.

Rachel J.B. Weisman

Founding Member, Weisman Law Group

In 2001, Weisman founded her law office, which has since expanded to include three additional attorneys. The Cedarhurst firm, which has a satellite office in Manhattan, recently opened a third office in Uniondale. Weisman concentrates on matrimonial and family law matters, with about 75 percent of her practice devoted to litigation. She has presented continuing legal education courses on family and matrimonial law for Sterling Education Services and the National Academy of Continuing Legal Education. Additionally, Weisman contributed a chapter to the book "Inside the Minds: New York Family Law Strategies."

ADAM H. KOBLENZ

RACHEL J.B. WEISMAN

You're Invited to the "Workplace 2012" Labor, Employment & HR Conference

June 28, 2012 | Melville Marriott Long Island
June 21, 2012 | Harvard Club of New York City

8:15 a.m. - 4:15 p.m., includes Lunch and Continental Breakfast

Visit www.bsk.com for more information or to register online.

Who Should Attend: HR Directors, Vice Presidents, Managers, Business Owners and those responsible for overseeing HR matters.

- Employment Law Update
- Electronic Records Management & E-Discovery
- Mental and Emotional Leave Issues
- Effective Employee Handbooks
- Hot Topics in Employee Benefits
- Wage and Hour Issues
- Employee Social Media Use

Registration Fees:
Bond Clients/SHRM Members: $175 each; General Public: $200 each
Program was submitted to the HR Certification Institute.

BOND SCHOENECK & KING